General Instructions

All questions must be answered honestly. The Department is required to reject applicants who make false statements.

Being "convicted" includes guilty pleas and probation.

Being "adjudged a disorderly person" includes all convictions for offenses less than a crime, other than traffic offenses.

Applicants are notified by mail when permits and/or firearms I.D. are ready.

Initial Firearms Purchaser Identification Card

1. Complete the application packet and return to the Little Falls Police Department, along with $5 fee; payment can be cash or check.
2. You will need to submit a copy of the front and back of your NJ driver's license. For your convenience, we can make the copy when you submit your application.
3. Reference forms must have complete and correct addresses and returned with your application for mailing. DO NOT give this form to your references to fill out. we will mail it out for you.

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY to avoid any delays in processing your application.

4. Once the completed application is returned, the applicant will receive a Fingerprint form, along with Live Scan fingerprinting instructions for MorphoTrak. This form must be presented to the fingerprinting agency. The applicant must follow the procedures for fees and payments as instructed on the MorphoTrak form.
Once you have been fingerprinted, you must return the form with your receipt so that we may proceed with the application, accordingly. Our department will be notified of your fingerprint results.
5. You may apply for handgun permits at the same time as your firearms I.D. card. There is a $2.00 fee for each permit; payment may be cash or check
