PASSAIC COUNTY CLERK DANIELLE IRELAND-IMHOF ANNOUNCES VOTING UNIVERSITY, A NEW VOTER EDUCATION INITIATIVE FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

Passaic County Clerk Danielle Ireland-Imhof is excited to announce Voting University, a comprehensive voter education initiative designed specifically for Passaic County college students.

This illustrative and informative guide is a one-stop resource for students who are residents of, or attending college in, Passaic County. Voting University provides everything they need to know to be fully prepared for the November 5, 2024, General Election and equips them with the knowledge to confidently exercise their civic duty of voting.

“It’s crucial to equip young people with the information they need to get involved in the voting process, fostering a lifelong habit of civic engagement. By encouraging their participation, they take an active role in their futures, and it is our responsibility to support them in this endeavor,” says Clerk Ireland-Imhof.

Voting University is available at www.passaiccountyvotes.org along with other essential and comprehensive information to prepare voters for November 5, 2024 General Election.
